

Sound Symphony 2019 Concerto Competition

The Sound Symphony Orchestra is sponsoring its annual solo competition to be held on Friday, May 3rd and Saturday, May 4th at a private home in Islip, NY. The competition is open to all instrumentalists and vocalists. Previous winners are not eligible to audition within 3 years of winning the competition. Contestants must be under the age of 19 as of January 1, 2020 to be eligible. The winner(s) will perform as a featured soloist with the Sound Symphony Orchestra at one of its 2019-2020 season concerts.

Suitable repertoire includes any solo piece with orchestral accompaniment. All works must be memorized and performed in their entirety for the audition. Contestants will be judged on overall performance, style, and suitability of performance with orchestral accompaniment. All contestants will be auditioned privately. Accompanists are mandatory and the responsibility of the contestants. A Steinway model M baby grand is available for accompanists and piano entrants. A second keyboard will be available for those accompanying piano entrants. The judges reserve the right to select more than one winner or to select no winner. The decisions of the judges are final.

Applications must be postmarked no later than Monday April 15, 2019 and must include a non-refundable $60.00 application fee, in the form of a check or money order, payable to Sound Symphony, Inc. Receipt of the completed application will be acknowledged via e-mail. Location of the home and audition times will be specified in the email. Please include a biography with your application. Judges will not be privy to the biography until after the winner(s) is/are selected. Winner(s) will be featured with their bios and pictures on our website and in our concert program.
